

After Death- What?

WHAT is your hope after death? Some say, "I shall go to hell and suffer a while, and then I shall be purged from my sins, and made ready for the Kingdom of Heaven." They expect to come through the fire of purgatory into Heaven. God help the one that is waiting for death to find salvation! There is no place beyond the grave to prepare for Heaven. There is only one remedy for sin, and that is the Blood of Jesus Christ.

"Now is the accepted time; behold, now is the day of salvation."

Suffering a thousand or a million years for sin would never purge you from a inlay conscience. It would never purge you from the stain of sin upon your soul. You cannot find in the Bible a hope of purgation after death; but it says, "He that is unjust, let him be unjust still: and /le which is filthy, let him be filthy still" (Rev:12:11).

Take the Bible and search it through, and you will find no place where it says there is a chance after death. There is no chance to repent and be saved on the other side of the grave.

"In the place where the tree falleth, there it shall be" (Eccl. 11:3). Unless you come to God and repent of your sins and receive forgiveness, you will have your portion in the "lake of fire" and wail with the damned throughout an endless eternity. (Read Rev. 20: 11-15; Matt. 25:41; Luke 16:19-26; Luke 12:4,5.)

But, thank God, His mercy is still flowing today. He has made an escape from the wrath of God, and it is through the remedy of the Blood of Jesus Christ that you can escape sin and the consequences of sin.

Behold the Lamb of God, which taketh away the sin of the world" (John 1:29).

"The Son of man is come to seek and to save that which was lost" (Luke 19:10).

"Now then we are ambassadors for Christ, as though God did beseech you by us: we pray you in Christ's stead, be ye reconciled to God" (II Cor. 5:20).
