What does the Bible mean when it talks about being a “fisher of men”?

Peter put aside his nets and followed Jesus. He had confidence in himself but what happened when Jesus needed him most?

How did Peter feel about his failure? (Matthew 26:75)

- a. He shrugged it off, it wasn't important.
- b. He wept bitterly.
- c. He bragged to his friends about what happened.

Peter was humbled by making a bad choice but ended up being an even better follower of Jesus. Did Jesus love Peter any less because he messed up?

Yes

No

What can you do every day that will help you make good choices?

HOW EMBARRASSING!

Think about a time you really blew it--some failure, dumb thing you said or did, or how you let somebody down.

How did people treat you? _____

How did you react to what you had done? _____

Peter denied Jesus, the thing he thought he would never do. What do you think caused him to take that step?

Read Mark 14:38 and explain what Jesus meant by this statement.

How did Peter demonstrate his remorse and sorrow over what he had done? (Matthew 26:75)

Sometimes the consequences of failure only leave bad memories, sometimes there may be hurt feelings, physical injury, or other reminders that are hard to live with. How can you use the failures in your life to actually achieve greater spiritual depth?
